

Aromas of lemon curd, crème brûlée, ripe granny smith apple, and flint leap out of the glass. On entry the wine is rich and silky with a core of ripe, white peach and stone fruits, layered over classic Chardonnay flavors of apple and citrus, and a considerable, underlying mineral component. Lively acidity is beautifully integrated and amplifies the sheer juiciness of the wine, further enhancing its innate complexity.

James Cahill, Winemaker

NORTH VALLEY
2011 RESERVE CHARDONNAY